

See Ya Later Alligator

RULES: IDPA Rules

Created By: IDPATBAY

START POSITION:

Seated at the table, with hands placed behind the chair. Shooter's empty firearm - with slide forward or cylinder closed - placed on the barrel along with any magazines. There will be a stage firearm loaded with 4 rounds on the table.

SCENARIO:

You are being interrogated by drug cartel criminals who believe you are an informant. They have you tied to a chair while waving a gun in your face. After they finish with you, they plan to feed you to two vicious pit bulls and an alligator. But, you are able to work your hands free, and they finally place their firearm on the table.

PROCEDURE:

At signal, retrieve stage firearm and engage the two threats with 2 rounds each. Leave stage gun on the table. Then retrieve and load your firearm and engage the remaining threats with 2 rounds each. There is a forward fault line at 7 yds from the alligator. (You didn't want to get any closer than that, did you???)
